

Mother,

*I count myself a very lucky son-in-law to have a mother like you!
I know you pray for me and all of the challenges I face, you have no idea how much that means to me, to know I have an effective prayer cover protecting me.*

You are one of the most unselfish people I know, willing to do anything for your family, church or friends!

God is using you to be a blessing, even as you help discover the jewels and special abilities of others around you.

I am not interested in giving you a big head, just reminding you of how God is using you each day as you allow Him to work through you.

Isn't it fun to be in His service!

I pray for you, your faith and courage will stay strong as you keep loving, caring and reaching out to any He brings in your path. May you always have the peace that passes understanding.

Your son-in-law

Jim
